DIRECTORS' REPORT

for the year ended 31 March 1995

The directors submit their report together with the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 1995.

Activities and Business Prospects

The company has remained dormant throughout the financial year. The directors expect the company to remain dormant for the foreseeable future.

Directors and their Interests in Shares

The directors who held office during the financial year were:

J. Whittaker
R. E. Hough
P. A. Scott
P. P. Wainscott

None of the above directors held any interests in shares of the company during the financial year.

The above directors are directors of the intermediate holding company, Peel Holdings p.l.c., in whose accounts their beneficial interests in shares of that company, companies within the Peel Holdings p.l.c. group and the ultimate holding company, Tokenhouse Holdings Limited, are disclosed.

Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

The company is dormant and pursuant to Section 250 of the Companies Act 1985 it was resolved that the company should not prepare audited financial statements.

By order of the Board

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS
for the year ended 31 March 1995

1. Accounting Policies

Accounting Convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with Section 226 and Schedule 4 of the Companies Act 1985.

Going Concern

The intermediate holding company, Peel Holdings p.l.c., has confirmed it will continue to give financial support.

Compliance with Accounting Standards

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards.

As the company has remained dormant throughout the financial year there has been no profits and losses or other gains and losses during the year. Consequently, a Statement of Total Recognised Gains and Losses, Notes of Historical Cost Profits and Losses and a Reconciliation of Movements in Shareholders' Funds as required by Financial Reporting Standard No.3 are not applicable and have not been included within the Financial Statements.

Cash Flow Statement

The financial statements do not include a cash flow statement as the company is a wholly owned subsidiary undertaking of the Peel Holdings p.l.c. group of companies.

Peel Holdings p.l.c. is a company incorporated and registered in England which produces group financial statements in accordance with the Companies Act 1985, which include a consolidated group cash flow statement.

2. Profit and Loss Account

The company has remained dormant throughout the financial year. Consequently, the company has no profit and loss account.
