No provision for depreciation has been made as regards the freehold investments properties in the balance sheet in accordance with Statement of Standard Accounting Practice No. 19 - Accounting for Investment Properties.

The application of this standard does represent a departure from the legal requirements of the Companies Act to provide depreciation on any fixed asset which has a limited useful economic life, but is considered necessary for the overriding purpose of giving a true and fair view. If depreciation was to be provided, the charge for the year would be £4,000 (2001: £4,000) based on a valuation of freehold buildings of £200,000 (2001: £200,000).
