AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE DIRECTORS OF

DOMO SECURITIES LIMITED

We have examined the abbreviated accounts on pages 1 to 4 together with the full accounts of the Company for the year ended 24th December 1995. The scope of our work for the purpose of this report was limited to confirming that (a) the Company is entitled to the exemptions claimed in the directors' statement on page 1 and (b) the abbreviated accounts have been properly prepared in accordance with Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985.

In our opinion the Company satisfies the requirements of Sections 246 and 247, Companies Act 1985 as a small company in respect of the year ended 24th December 1995 and that these abbreviated accounts have been properly prepared in accordance with the aforementioned Schedule 8.

We reported, as auditors of Domo Securities Limited, to the shareholders on 8th August 1996 on the company's accounts prepared under Section 4 of the Companies Act 1989 for the year ended 24th December 1995, and our audit opinion was as follows:

"We have audited the accounts on pages 5 to 12, which have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of certain fixed assets, and the accounting policies set out on page 7.

Respective Responsibilities of Directors and Auditors

As described on page 2 the Company's directors are responsible for the preparation of accounts. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on those accounts and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the accounts. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the accounts, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the accounts are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the accounts.

AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE DIRECTORS OF

Opinion

In our opinion the Company is entitled for the year ended 24th December 1995 to the exemption conferred by Section 248 of the Companies Act 1985 from the requirement to prepare group accounts.

In our opinion the accounts give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at 24th December 1995 and of the profit of the Company for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 1985."
