J. Milne	-	-

DIRECTORS RESPONSIBILITIES:

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- Select accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that were reasonable and prudent;
- Follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts;
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing the above report, the directors have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies.

BALANCE SHEET - 31 MARCH 2000

For the year ended 31st March 2000, the company was entitled to exemption under subsection (1) of section 249A;

that no member or members have requested an audit pursuant to subsection (2) of section 249B; and that the directors acknowledge their responsibility for:

- i. Ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221; and
- ii. Preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit and loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of this Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

The directors have taken advantage of special exemptions conferred by Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies in the preparation of the accounts and have done so on the grounds that, in their opinion, the company is entitled to those exemptions.

WINCHMORE HILL PROPERTY COMPANY LIMITED

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS - 31 MARCH 2000

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention as modified by the revaluation of certain assets where necessary.

Consolidation

The company and subsidiary comprise a small group. The company has therefore taken advantage of the exemption provided by Section 248 of the Companies Act 1985 not to prepare group accounts.

Cash Flow

The accounts do not include a cash flow statement because the company, as a small reporting entity, is exempt from the requirement to prepare such a statement under Financial Reporting Standard 1 "Cash Flow Statements".

Turnover

Turnover represents net invoiced sales of goods excluding value added tax.

Tangible Fixed Assets

Depreciation is provided, after taking account of any grants receivable, as the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life:

Freehold buildings:	No charge made
Fixtures & fittings:	No charge made

No depreciation is provided on freehold land or on the property.

Deferred Taxation

Provision is made at current rates for taxation deferred in respect of all material timing differences except to the extent that, in the opinion of the directors, there is reasonable probability that the liability will not arise in the foreseeable future.

2. TURNOVER

Turnover attributable to geographical markets outside the United Kingdom amounted to 0% (1997-0%).

3. OPERATING PROFIT
