In the opinion of the directors the company is entitled to claim exemptions from audit by virtue of subsection (1) of Section 249A of the Companies Act 1985. Members have not required the company, under Section 249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985, to obtain an audit for the year ended 31 May 2001. The directors are responsible for ensuring that the company maintains accounting records in compliance with Section 221 of that Act and for preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the year then ended in accordance with Section 226, and which comply with the other requirements of the Act relating to the accounts so far as applicable to the company.

In preparing these abbreviated financial statements the directors have taken advantage of the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

Approved by the board of directors on 15 January 2002 and signed on its behalf.

Director

The annexed notes form part of these financial statements.

MILBAR INVESTMENTS LIMITED
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MAY 2001

1. Accounting policies

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective March 2000).

Cash flow statement

The company has taken advantage of the exemption contained within Financial Reporting Standard Number 1 from the requirement to prepare a cash flow statement on the grounds that it qualifies as a small company as defined by Section 247 of the Companies Act 1985.

Investments

Investments which have been classified as fixed assets are included at cost, less any reductions in the value of those investments which are considered to be permanent.

Investments classified as current assets are shown at the lower of cost or net realisable value.

Group financial statements

Consolidated financial statements have not been prepared by virtue of the group as headed by the company, qualifying as a small group in accordance with sections 248 and 249 of the Companies Act 1985.

These financial statements therefore present information about the company as an individual undertaking and not about its group.
