Chartered Accountants' Report

Chartered Accountants' Report to the Board of Directors on the unaudited accounts of Derryville Ltd

In accordance with the engagement letter dated 1 February 2012, and in order to assist you to fulfil your duties under the Companies Act 2006, we have compiled the accounts of the company which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes from the accounting records and information and explanations you have given to us

This report is made to the Company's Board of Directors, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement. Our work has been undertaken so that we might compile the accounts that we have been engaged to compile, report to the Company's Board of Directors that we have done so, and state those matters that we have agreed to state to them in this report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Company and the Company's Board of Directors, as a body, for our work or for this report.

We have carried out this engagement in accordance with technical guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and have complied with the ethical guidance laid down by the Institute relating to members undertaking the compilation of accounts.

You have acknowledged on the balance sheet as at 24 June 2011 your responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts. These responsibilities include preparing accounts that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year. You consider that the company is exempt from the statutory requirement for an audit for the year.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit of the accounts. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records or information and explanations you have given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the accounts.

1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008)

Income

Income represents service charges receivable from the residential lessees

Maintenance reserve

The basic maintenance deposit paid on completion has been credited to the other reserve account. This reserve account along with the maintenance reserve account may be applied in paying up arrears of maintenance charged out but it otherwise retained throughout the term of the lease and repaid to the lessees on the determination of the several leases

Depreciation

Depreciation is provided in order to write off each assets over its estimated useful life -

Fixtures and fittings	20% on cost

2 Taxation

The company is a mutual company for tax purposes and not generally liable to taxation on income derived from members which is applied for management of and provision of services to the members' flats

The Inspector of Taxes has indicated that due to the small amounts of tax due from the company, it is not his intention to seek to collect Corporation Tax from the company, so long as the company's circumstances remain unchanged. No provision has therefore been made for Corporation Tax for the year
