AUDITORS' REPORT TO ROSERIDGE LIMITED UNDER SECTION 247B OF THE COMPANIES ACT 1985

We have examined the abbreviated accounts set out on pages 2 to 4, together with the financial statements of the company for the year ended 30 September 2001 prepared under section 226 of the Companies Act 1985.

Respective responsibilities of the director and auditors

The director is responsible for preparing the abbreviated accounts in accordance with section 246 of the Companies Act 1985. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion as to whether the company is entitled to deliver abbreviated accounts prepared in accordance with sections 246(5) and (6) of the Act to the Registrar of Companies and whether the accounts to be delivered are properly prepared in accordance with those provisions and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of opinion

We have carried out the procedures we considered necessary to confirm, by reference to the financial statements, that the company is entitled to deliver abbreviated accounts and that the abbreviated accounts to be delivered are properly prepared. The scope of our work for the purpose of this report did not include examining or dealing with events after the date of our report on the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the company is entitled to deliver abbreviated accounts prepared in accordance with sections 246(5) and (6) of the Companies Act 1985, and the abbreviated accounts on pages 2 to 4 are properly prepared in accordance with those provisions.

ROSERIDGE LIMITED

NOTES TO THE ABBREVIATED ACCOUNTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2001

1 Accounting policies

1.1 Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention modified to include the revaluation of leasehold investment properties.

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No 1 from the requirement to produce a cash flow statement on the grounds that it is a small company.

1.2 Turnover

Turnover represents rents and service charges receivable during the year from investment properties and management fees receivable. Where applicable, it is stated net of value added tax.

1.3 Tangible fixed assets and amortisation

The company's leasehold properties are held for long term investment and are accounted for as investment properties in accordance with Statement of Standard Accounting Practice No 19. Accordingly, the investment properties are revalued annually. Any surpluses or deficits are transferred to a revaluation reserve. In the case of permanent impairments in the value of the investment properties, any deficit below cost is taken to the profit and loss account of the financial year. No amortisation is provided in respect of leasehold investment properties where the unexpired remaining term of the lease is more than twenty years.

Although the Companies Act would normally require the systematic annual amortisation of fixed assets, the director believes that the policy of not providing amortisation on leasehold investment properties is necessary in order for the financial statements to give a true and fair view, since the current value of the investment properties, and changes to that current value, are of prime importance rather than a calculation of systematic annual amortisation. Amortisation is only one of many factors reflected in the annual valuation, and the amount which might otherwise have been shown cannot be separately identified or quantified.

1.4 Leasing

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged against income on a straight line basis over the lease term.

1.5 Deferred taxation

Deferred taxation is provided at appropriate rates on all timing differences using the liability method only to the extent that, in the opinion of the director, there is a reasonable probability that a liability or asset will crystallise in the foreseeable future.

1.6 Profit recognition

Property acquisitions and disposals are accounted for when legally binding contracts which are irrevocable and effectively unconditional are exchanged and, in the case of disposals, where completion has taken place prior to the date on which the financial statements are approved.
