Statement of Directors Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. in preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to :

- 1 Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- 2 Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- 3 Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Audit

We believe that the company is exempt from the requirement to have an annual audit.

Dated this 27th May 1997

Accountants Report To The Shareholders Of

Granary Court (S/W) Management Ltd

Year Ended 31st March 1997

We report on the Accounts for the year ended 31st March 1997 set out on pages 4 to 7.

Respective Responsibilities of Directors and Auditors

As described on page 3, the Company's Directors are responsible for the preparation of the Accounts, and they consider that the Company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis of Opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with Statements of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consist of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the Company, and making sure such limited enquiries of the officers of the Company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report.

Opinion

In our opinion :

a) The accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985.

b) Having regard only to , and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:

i) The accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the Accounting requirements specified in section 249C(6) of the Act, and

ii) The Company satisfies the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of Companies not entitled to exemption specified in section 249B(1)
