Structure, Governance and Management

Governing document:

Memorandum and Articles of Association, 4 April 1989, as amended by Special Resolution

Appointment of trustees:

At present all positions are filled through annual nominations and election. This has been standard practice since 1986. It was felt this maximised accountability to the whole membership of the Collective.

Trustee induction and training:

A copy of the Memorandum & Articles of Association - and all the policies relating to the Centre (also outlining the roles and responsibilities of the trustees) - is made available to all trustees at the Hillingdon Women's Centre. Booklets with information on the roles and responsibilities of trustees are also made available at the Centre, and trustee training is accessible to all trustees.

Organisation:

The charity operates from above address during "drop in" and most activities take place there. Exceptions include meetings and networking with organisations who have purposes similar to those of the charity. We network informally with other organisations. Policy and planning decisions are currently agreed at the monthly Planning and Policy (P&P) meetings. The P&P is open to all trustee members of Hillingdon Women's Centre. Currently the Director/Trustee Group meet monthly, their purpose to support the Centre Co-ordinator and volunteers in the day-to-day running of the Centre. All women who volunteer with HWC are welcome to attend meetings and express their views.

Related parties:

We network with a wide variety of local organisations, and our partners include London Borough of Hillingdon, Hillingdon Law Centre, Hillingdon Independent Domestic Violence Advocacy Project (HIDVAP) Westside Support Services, HAVS (Hillingdon Association of Volunteer Services), Social Services, Rethink, National Domestic Violence Help Line, MIND, CNWL (Riverside Centre Mental Health) Women's Resource Centre, YMCA, MARAC (Multi Agency Risk Assessment Conference), REAP, NHS Hillingdon, Sahan Society Centre and many other organisations via Domestic Violence/crime prevention meetings.

HILLINGDON WOMENS CENTRE LTD

Risk management:

The Trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those relating to the operations and finances of the charity, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate our exposure to the major risks

Consensus is reached through regular meetings of P&P Members are required to attend at least three P&P meetings per year and failure to meet this requirement results in loss of their voting rights pertaining to major decisions pertaining to HWC A Director/Trustee is accompanied by an appointed volunteer to check monies collected within the Centre

Objectives and activities:

The Memorandum, page 1, states that the charity's objective is "to promote any charitable purpose for the benefit of women resident in Hillingdon " Our objectives include the advancement of education, relief of poverty, protection of health, facilitation of recreation and leisure-time occupations in order to improve social welfare and conditions of women's lives

Our activities include the daily 'drop-in' offering support and advice, courses, social events, e.g (a successful International Women's Day) fund-raising, legal advice, interpretation where required, meetings, domestic violence support, working with the local domestic violence services, making referrals for refuges, student placements and general support

Grant making policy:

None – no grants are made to other organisations

Project grants: £19,000 was received from London Borough of Hillingdon towards the Centre Co-ordinator's salary

Achievements and performance:

Jill Lynch was appointed as centre co-ordinator in April 2009 The volunteer training programme has been updated PQASSO Level 1 maintained Networking visits made to other agencies & organisations to raise the profile of Hillingdon Women's Centre and membership of the Domestic Violence Forum have increased The Centre leaflets continue to be produced and could be made available in different languages, the steady flow of new volunteers continues, the website traffic has doubled, the counselling servicing was closed in January 2011 due to lack of funding The free monthly newsletter continues

A number of new initiatives have been started such as a Photography, Benefits advice, Increased Legal Advice sessions, increased Private use Room Hire, Coffee morning, Embroidery and Crochet club and What about Me The centre also for the first time took part in the Hillingdon Arts week and opened its door for local female artists to exhibit their work on our premises, this was a great success and we hope this will continue

Raising awareness:

Visits made to other agencies & organisations, musical performances by our patron, networking by the centre coordinator and patron, talks given e.g. at Universities, Schools, Clubs liaising with other women's centres by volunteers generally, leaflets & website, newsletter. We continually promote our courses and services in the borough of Hillingdon. We increasingly take part in fund raising events and information fairs.

Financial Review:

The Committee would report that the income of the charitable company in respect of unrestricted Funds was £12,389 (2010 £15,727). The Income in respect of restricted funds was £41,870 (2010 £27,136). The Statement of Financial Activities on page 7 shows the total resources expended was £50,591 (2010 £62,175), this can be analysed between £10,563 in respect of unrestricted funds, £39,521 restricted funds, and £507 governance costs.

The Trustees would point out that £304 of the unrestricted income, and £304 of the unrestricted expenditure represents a donation in kind.

Specific investment powers of the trustees:

None, except to place money in a deposit account – currently CAF Gold account.

Reserves policy and Level of Reserves:

Review and update accepted at P&P meeting on 31 March 2011.

The Trustees recognise the need to hold reserves to allow protection of all core activities in the event of income shortfalls & cash flow problems and to promote balanced, long-term strategic planning. In line with Charity Commission guidelines, the Trustees define reserves as

"Income which becomes available to the charity and which is to be expended at the trustees' discretion in furtherance of any of the charity's objectives but which has not yet been spent, committed or designated."

Excluding Reserves in the form of restricted funds and freehold property, as at the 31st March 2011 the Charitable Company had free reserves in the form of unrestricted funds in the amount of £

As this only equates to 8 months running costs the Trustees have embarked on a fund raising programme. To enhance reserves to try to ensure the charity has sufficient reserves to continue providing charitable Objectives.

Arrangement for Monitoring & Reviewing the Policy:

These are reviewed & monitored at the four weekly P&P meetings

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the charity at the end of the financial year and of its surplus and deficit for the financial year. In doing so the trustees are required to

- (a) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently
- (b) Make sound judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent, and
- (c) Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is appropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the detection and prevention of fraud or other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF HILLINGDON WOMENS CENTRE

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31st March 2011 set out on pages seven to twelve

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act)) and that an independent examination is required

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to

- examine the accounts under Section 43 of the 1993 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 & 387 of the Companies Act 2006, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Section 394 & 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met, or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
