The directors consider that the company is entitled to exemption from the requirement to have audit under the provisions of section 249A(2) of the companies act 1985. Shareholders holding 10% or more of the nominal value of the company's issued share capital have not issued a notice requiring an audit. The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the companies act 1985, and for preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the company as at 30th june 1997 and of its profit for the year then ended in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the act relating to the accounts so far as applicable to the company.

In preparing these financial statements the directors have taken advantage of the exemptions conferred by Part 111 of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985, and have done so on the grounds that, in their opinion, the company is entitled to the exemptions as a small company.

Accountant's Report to the Shareholders of V T Textiles limited

I report on the accounts for the year ended 30 June 1997.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

The company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is my responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable me to report my opinion.

Basis of opinion

My work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so my procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as I considered necessary for the purposes of my report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in my opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion

- (a) the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985;
- (b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:
 - (1) the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in section 249C(6) of the Act; and
 - (2) the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in section 249B(1)
