RICHARDS COURT PROPERTY COMPANY LIMITED

Report of the directors for the year ended 30 June 1997

The directors present their report together with the financial statements for the year ended 30 June 1997.

Results and dividends

The profit and loss account is set out on page 4 and shows the loss for the year.

The directors do not recommend the payment of a dividend.

Principal activities, trading review and future developments

The principal activity of the company is to provide management services in respect of the premises known as Richards Court, 1-7 Ravenscroft Road, Beckenham, Kent ('the premises'). The company makes no profit and transfers any surplus of income over expenditure to a capital reserve. The purpose of the reserve is to provide for future maintenance costs, in accordance with the terms of the lease agreement.

Capital reserve

As referred to earlier, the function of the capital reserve is to provide for future maintenance costs. The amount of the costs are uncertain; however, in order to fulfil obligations contained within tenant's leases with regard to external and internal maintenance of the premises, provision is required to be made now and in future periods for these costs.

Directors

The directors of the company during the year and their interests in the ordinary share capital of the company were:

Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
