STATEMENT OF DIRECTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit and loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Make judgements and assessments that are reasonable and prudent.
- Comply with applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume the company will continue in business.

The director confirms that the accounts comply with the above requirements.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985.

He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The director has prepared these accounts in accordance with Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

AUDITORS

The company was entitled to exemption from an audit under Section 249A(1) of the Companies Act 1985.

No notice has been deposited by members requiring an audit, as under Section 249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985
