Annual Report and Accounts

For

Year Ended 30th April 2000

Directors' report

For the year ended 30th April 2000

The directors present their report and accounts for the year ended 30th April 2000.

Directors' Responsibilities

The directors are required to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts; and
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy, at any time, the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with company legislation. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Review of the business

The company has been dormant throughout the year and a resolution is in place to dispense with the requirement for an annual audit.

Directors

The present members of the board, who served throughout the period, are Mr C.R. Evans and Mr S.J. Russell.

Directors' interests

The company is a wholly owned subsidiary of International Customer Loyalty Programmes plc. Mr C.R. Evans is a director of that company and his share interest is disclosed in that company's directors' report. Mr S.J. Russell has no beneficial interest in the company's shares.

This report was approved by the Board of Directors on 27 October 2000
