Mrs C Appleby
G S Morden Esq
P J Spriggs Esq	Appointed Chairman 11 May 1998

3 Directors Responsibilities

Company Law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the Company and of the profit or loss for that period. In preparing these financial statements the Directors are required to :-

- a) select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- b) make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- c) comply with applicable accounting standards subject to any material departures being disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- d) prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

ACCOUNTANTS REPORT

We have examined , without carrying out an audit, the accounts for the year ended 31 March 1998, as set out on pages 3 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of Directors and Reporting Accountants.

As described on page 1 the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts and they believe that the company is exempt from audit. It is our responsibility to examine the accounts and, based on our examination, to report our opinion as set out below to the shareholders.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for reporting accountants issued by the Auditing Practices Board. This examination consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company ,and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report.

The examination was not an audit conducted in accordance with Auditing Standards . Accordingly we do not express an audit opinion on the Accounts. Therefore our examination does not provide any assurance that the accounting records and the accounts are free from material mis-statement.

Opinion

In our opinion

- a) the Accounts are in agreement with those accounting records kept by the company under Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985.
- b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records, the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in Section 249C(6) of the Act
- c) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in the accounting records kept by the company under Section 221 of the Act, it satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in Section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in Section 249B(1)
