Director's Statement

The directors state that in preparing these abbreviated accounts they have relied upon the exemptions for individual accounts in Sections 246 and 247 of the Companies Act 1985 on the grounds that the Company is entitled to the benefit of those Sections as a small company.

The exemption conferred by Section 249A(1) not to have these accounts audited applies to the company and the directors confirm that no notice has been deposited under S.249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985.

NOTES ON THE HISTORY OF THE

REPUBLIC OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
FROM 1776 TO 1863

CHAPTER I. 1776-1789

The first of the great events in the history of the United States was the Declaration of Independence in 1776. This was followed by the Revolutionary War, which ended in 1781 with the British evacuation of Yorktown. The war was a struggle for the right of the colonies to be free and independent states.

CHAPTER II. 1789-1800

The second of the great events in the history of the United States was the adoption of the Constitution in 1787. This was followed by the election of George Washington as the first President of the United States in 1789. The Constitution established the framework of the federal government, and Washington's leadership was instrumental in the early years of the Republic.

CHAPTER III. 1800-1820

The third of the great events in the history of the United States was the War of 1812. This was followed by the Treaty of Ghent in 1814, which ended the war. The war was a struggle for the right of the United States to be a free and independent nation.

CHAPTER IV. 1820-1840

1820 1830 1840

The fourth of the great events in the history of the United States was the Mexican War in 1846. This was followed by the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo in 1848, which ended the war. The war was a struggle for the right of the United States to be a free and independent nation.

CHAPTER V. 1840-1860

The fifth of the great events in the history of the United States was the Civil War in 1861. This was followed by the Emancipation Proclamation in 1863, which ended slavery. The war was a struggle for the right of the United States to be a free and independent nation.

CHAPTER VI. 1860-1877

The sixth of the great events in the history of the United States was the Reconstruction period in 1865. This was followed by the Reconstruction Act in 1867, which ended Reconstruction. The period was a struggle for the right of the United States to be a free and independent nation.
