The company did not trade during year and accordingly no profit and loss account has been prepared. The company made neither a profit nor a loss nor had any other recognised gains or losses.

The trustees have taken advantage of the exemption conferred by section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 which relates to dormant companies in order to not have this financial statement audited and confirm that the members have not required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006. The trustees acknowledge their responsibilities for

- (a) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 and regulation 4 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006, and
- (c) preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at 30 September 2012 and of its result for the year then ended in accordance with the requirements of sections 394-396, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006, The Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and regulations 6 and 8 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the company.

The company, whose ultimate parent company is Macmillan Cancer Support, was dormant within the meaning of section 1169 of the Companies Act 2006 throughout the year. Macmillan Cancer Support is the parent of both the smallest and largest groups of which the company is a member. Copies of its consolidated financial statements are available from Companies House.
