Directors Report at 30th April 2000

The Directors present their Report and Financial Statements for the year ended 30th April 2000.

REVIEW OF THE BUSINESS

The sole activity of the company is to manage the communal grounds owned by the holding company; The Brightstone Management Company, the members of which are the six residential properties residing around the communal land. In this year of trading the company performed as expected and contributions from the members of the company represent the only source of income.

RESULTS AND DIVIDENDS

Expenditure has been limited to insurance for public liability, general garden maintenance, legal expenses and sundry items. No dividends apply.

AUDITOR

Due to the nature of the company and the very limited trading activity, an Auditor is yet to be appointed.

Statement by the Directors

For the year in question the company was entitled to the exemption conferred by subsection (1) of section 249 A, no notice has been deposited under sub section (2) of section 249 B in relation to its accounts for the financial year. That the directors acknowledge their responsibilities for: -

Ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the companies Act 1985, and preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year in accordance with section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company, advantage has been taken of the exemptions conferred by section A of part 3 of schedule 8, and in the opinion of the Directors the company is entitled to those exemptions on the basis that it qualifies as a small company.

Approved by the board on 27th June 2000, and signed on it's behalf by
