Paul Castleman

Secretary

Dated 15th October 1997

For the period in question the Company was entitled to the exemption conferred by subsection 1 of section 249A of the Companies Act 1985 (the 'Act').

No notice has been deposited under subsection 2 of section 249B of the Act in relation to the Company's accounts for the period of account.

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for:

- (i) ensuring that the Company keeps proper accounting periods which comply with section 221; and
- (ii) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit and loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the Company.

Advantage has been taken of the exemptions conferred by section A Part III of Schedule 8.

Advantage has been taken, in the preparation of the accounts, of special exemptions applicable to small companies.

In the opinion of the directors, the Company is entitled to those exemptions on the basis that it qualifies as a small company under section 247.
