PROJECT GENESIS NOMINEES LIMITEDDIRECTOR'S REPORT

The director presents his report and the audited financial statements for the year ended 30th June 2000.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Principal activities

The company was incorporated for administrative convenience to effect certain transactions on behalf of the Trustees of The Project Genesis Trust, including the holding of shares on behalf of the Trustees.

The company did not trade during the year.

Directors and directors' interests

The director who held office during the year was as follows:

A Hill

A Hill is the sole shareholder and acts as nominee for the Trustees of the Project Genesis Trust.

Small company exemptions

This report is prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

The financial statements on pages 4 and 5 have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective March 2000).

PROJECT GENESIS NOMINEES LIMITEDAUDITORS' REPORT*Auditors' report to the members of*Project Genesis Nominees Limited

We have audited the financial statements on pages 4 and 5 which have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities, (effective March 2000) under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page 5.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As described on page 2 the company's director is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on those statements and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs at 30th June 2000 and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.
