ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT TO THE DIRECTORS OF LIBRIOS LIMITED

UNDER SECTION 249A(2) OF THE COMPANIES ACT 1985

We have examined the abbreviated accounts on pages 2 to 5 together with the financial statements of the company prepared under section 226 of the Companies Act 1985.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants
The directors are responsible for the preparation of the abbreviated accounts, and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion as to whether the company is entitled to deliver abbreviated accounts and whether the accounts to be delivered are properly prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 1985 and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of opinion
We have carried out the procedures we considered necessary to confirm, by reference to the financial statements, that the company is entitled to deliver abbreviated accounts and that the abbreviated accounts to be delivered are properly prepared. The scope of our work for the purpose of this report did not include examining or dealing with events after the date of our report on the financial statements.

Opinion
In our opinion:
(a) the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985.

(b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:
(i) the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the provisions specified in section 249C(6) of the Act; and

(ii) the company satisfied the requirements for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in section 249B(1)(a)-(f)."

AS AT 31st DECEMBER 2003

The directors confirm that:

(c) they acknowledge their responsibilities for:

(i) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Companies Act 1985, and

(ii) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226 of the Companies Act 1985,and which otherwise comply with the requirements of this Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

In preparing these abbreviated financial statements, the directors have taken advantage of the exemptions conferred by Part. III of Schedule 8 made under sections 246 and 247 of the Companies Act 1985 and in their opinion the company is entitled to those exemptions on the basis that it qualifies as a small company.

NOTES TO THE ABBREVIATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31st DECEMBER 2003

1.ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting basis and standards
The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards.

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No. 1 from producing a cash flow statement.

b) Turnover
Turnover represents the invoiced value of goods sold and services rendered during the year, stated net of value added tax.

c) Depreciation
Depreciation is provided on all tangible fixed assets, at rates calculated to write off the cost, less estimated residual value, of each asset over its expected useful life as follows:

Equipment & office furniture	25% reducing balance

d) Work-in-progress
Work-in-progress is stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Net realisable value is based on estimated selling price less further costs expected to be incurred to completion and disposal.

e) Deferred taxation
Deferred taxation is provided at the current rate of corporation tax using the liability method on all short term timing differences arising from the inclusion of income and expenditure in taxation computations in periods different from those in which they are included in the financial statements except where the tax reduction is expected to continue for the future.
