Director's Responsibilities

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. In preparing these the director is required to

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In the preparation of this report the director has taken advantage of the exemptions applicable to small companies as conferred by Part II of Schedule 8 of the Companies Act 1985.

This report was approved by the Board on 14/10/08 and signed on its behalf by

Director's statements required by Section 249B(4) for the year ended 30 June 2008

In approving these financial statements as director of the company I hereby confirm

(a) that for the year stated above the company was entitled to the exemption conferred by Section 249A(1) of the Companies Act 1985,

(b) that no notice has been deposited at the registered office of the company pursuant to Section 249B(2) requesting that an audit be conducted for the year ended 30 June 2008 and

(c) that I acknowledge my responsibilities for

(1) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with Section 221, and

(2) preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the year then ended in accordance with the requirements of Section 226 and which otherwise comply with the provisions of the Companies Act relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the company

In preparing these financial statements

- Advantage has been taken, in the preparation of the financial statements, of special exemptions applicable to small companies

- In the opinion of the director the company is entitled to those exemptions on the basis that it qualifies as a small company under Section 247 of the Companies Act 1985

The financial statements were approved by the Board on 14/10/08 and signed on its behalf by

A. Jackson
Director
