Quality Locum Holdings Limited

Directors' Report

Year ended 31 December 2005

The directors present their report and the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2005.

Principal activities and review of the business

The principal activity of the company continued to be that of a parent company to group undertakings which provide employment services.

The company has not traded during the year, and the directors consider it will continue as a holding company for the foreseeable future.

Results and dividends

The company will receive dividends from its wholly owned subsidiary, Quality Locum Services Limited.

The directors do not recommend the payment of a final dividend (2004: £6,530,000).

An interim dividend of £4,000,000 was received and also then paid on 31 January 2005.

Directors

The following directors held office throughout the year:

J R Pinder

A J T Pilgrim (resigned 31 December 2005)

R MacMillan was appointed as a director on 1 January 2006

Directors' interests

According to the register maintained for the purposes of Section 324 Companies Act 1985 none of the directors had any interests requiring disclosure.

Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors confirm they have;

- selected suitable accounting policies and then applied them consistently;
- made judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- stated whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts;
- prepared the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

Quality Locum Holdings Limited

Directors' Report

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Quality Locum Holdings Limited

Independent auditors' report

To the Members of Quality Locum Holdings Limited

We have audited the financial statements of Quality Locum Holdings Limited for the year ended 31 December 2005 which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes. These financial statements have been prepared under the accounting policies set out therein.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As described in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). This report, including the opinion, has been prepared for and only for the company's members as a body in accordance with Section 235 of the Companies Act 1985 and for no other purpose. We do not, in giving this opinion, accept or assume responsibility for any other purpose or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come save where expressly agreed by our prior consent in writing.

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985. We also report to you if, in our opinion, the Directors' Report is not consistent with the financial statements, if the company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding directors' remuneration and other transactions is not disclosed.

We read the Directors' Report and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements within it.

Basis of audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgments made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Quality Locum Holdings Limited

Independent auditors' report

To the Members of Quality Locum Holdings Limited

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view, in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 December 2005 and of its result for the year then ended; and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.

Notes to the financial statements Year ended 31 December 2005

1 Accounting policies

1.1 Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable United Kingdom accounting standards and Companies Act 1985. The company has adopted FRS 21 Post Balance Sheet Events, the effect of which is to recognise dividends when they are approved by the shareholders/paid. The profit and loss account and balance sheet for the prior year have been restated accordingly, with a proposed dividend for the year ended 31 December 2003 of £6,530,000 being recorded as an appropriation of profits in the year ended 31 December 2004 and the proposed dividend for that year of £4,000,000 being recorded as an appropriation in the current year.

1.2 Investments

Fixed asset investments are stated at cost less provision for impairment in value.

1.3 Group accounts

The accounts present information about the company as an individual undertaking and not about its group. The company has not prepared group accounts as it is exempt from the requirement to do so by section 228 of the Companies Act 1985 as it is a subsidiary undertaking of Match Healthcare Limited, a company incorporated in England and Wales, and is included in the consolidated accounts of that company and that company's ultimate parent undertaking, Match Holdings Limited, a company incorporated in England and Wales.

1.5 Related parties

Advantage has been taken of the exemption within FRS 8 (Related Party Transactions) not to disclose transactions between wholly owned group companies.

1.6 Cash Flow Statement

The company has taken advantage of the exemption under FRS1 (Revised) not to publish a cash flow statement, as the consolidated financial statements of its parent undertaking Match Healthcare Limited are publicly available.

2 Auditors' remuneration

Auditor's remuneration has been borne by Quality Locum Services Limited, a subsidiary of this company.

3 Employees

Number of employees

There were no employees during the year apart from the directors. The directors received remuneration for the group as a whole. Details of their remuneration can be found in the financial statements of Match Holdings Limited.

4 Taxation

There is no tax payable on the results for the year as there is no taxable profit.
