THE POLISH SAUSAGE COMPANY LIMITED

REPORT OF DIRECTORS

The Directors submit their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2003.

State of affairs
The company has not entered into any transactions during the year, other than to meet statutory fees and bank charges.

Directors and their interests
The directors of the company are listed on page 1. All the directors served in office for the whole of the year. Ms Felicity Devonshire served as a director throughout the year, but resigned as a director on 25 September 2003.

Statement of directors' responsibilities for the financial statements
Company law in the United Kingdom requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors have:

- selected suitable accounting policies and applied them consistently;
- made judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- followed applicable United Kingdom accounting standards; and
- prepared the financial statements on the going concern basis.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approval
The report of the directors has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

The report of the directors was approved by the Board on 9 Octr 2003 and signed on its behalf by:

R.G.M. YOUNG

(1) The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for ensuring the company keeps accounting records that comply with section 221 of the Companies Act 1985 and preparing financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with section 226 and otherwise comply with the provisions of the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies.

(2) The directors confirm the company was entitled to exemption from an audit under section 249A(1) of that Act and that no notice requiring an audit of financial statements has been deposited under section 249B(2) of that Act.

(3) The directors have taken advantage of the exemptions conferred by Part III of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985 on the basis that the company qualifies as a small company. On the same grounds advantage has been taken in the preparation of the financial statements of the special exemptions conferred by Part I of Schedule 8 to that Act.

The financial statements were approved by the Board on 9 October 2003 and signed on its behalf by:
