Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, directors are required to:

- : select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently:
- : make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent:
- : state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts:
- : prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

30TH JUNE 2003

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

In preparing these accounts for the year ended 30th June 2003:

- (a) The directors are of the opinion that the company is entitled to the exemption from audit conferred by Section 249(1) of the Companies Act 1985;
- (b) No notice has been deposited under Section 249(B) (2) of the Companies Act 1985, and
- (c) The directors acknowledge their responsibility for:
 - (i) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985, and
 - (ii) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of the Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

Advantage has been taken of the exemptions conferred by section A Part III of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985, on the grounds that, in the directors' opinion, the company qualifies as a small company under Section 247 and Section 248 of the Companies Act 1985.

Advantage has been taken, in the preparation of the accounts, of special exemptions applicable to small companies on the grounds that in the directors' opinion the company qualifies as a small company under Section 247 and Section 248 of the Companies Act 1985.

These accounts were approved by the Board on the 30th April 2004.
