IGP Corporate Nominees Ltd.	-	-

Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts;
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Small Company exemption

In preparing the above report, the directors have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies.

In the directors' opinion the company is entitled to the exemption from audit conferred by subsection 1 of section 249A of the Companies Act 1985 for the period 1st April 2005 to 31st March 2006.

The directors confirm that no notice under Section 249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985 requiring an audit has been deposited by members.

The directors confirm that they are responsible for:

- a) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with the requirements of Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985, and
- b) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the 31st March 2006 and of its results for the year then ended in accordance with the requirements of section 226 of the Companies Act 1985, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of this Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

In preparing these accounts the directors have taken advantage of the special exemptions applicable to small companies conferred by Part 1 of Schedule 8 of the Companies Act 1985 and have done so on the grounds that, in their opinion, the company is entitled to those exemptions as a small company.

The accounts were approved by the board on the 12th November 2006.

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS _____ FOR THE PERIOD 1ST APRIL 2005 TO 31ST MARCH 2006

1. Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies, which have been consistently applied, are:-

a) Basis of accounting

The accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards, except as detailed in note 1b) below.

b) Tangible fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at original historical cost less aggregate depreciation.

Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write-off the cost, less estimated residual value, of each asset on a reducing balance basis over its estimated useful life as follows:-

Motor Vehicles	25% per annum
Office Equipment	20% per annum

c) Taxation

The charge for taxation is based on the profit for the year and takes into account taxation deferred because of timing differences between the treatment of certain items for accounting and taxation purposes.

d) Cash flow statement

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard 1 from producing a cash flow statement on the grounds that it is a small company.

2. Profit on ordinary activities before taxation
