G J C INSTRUMENTS LIMITEDREPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

The Directors have pleasure in presenting their Annual Report and the Financial Statements of the Company for the year ended 30 September 2001.

1. Principal Activities

The company is dormant and has not traded during the year.

2. Directors

The Directors who held office during the year, and their interests in the shares of the Company, were as follows:

	Ordinary £1 Shares 2001 & 2000
Mr G J Chew	1
Mrs G L Chew	1

3. Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss for the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts;
- prepare accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

4. Auditors

The auditors, M G Quelch & Co, will be proposed for re-appointment in accordance with Section 385 of the Companies Act 1985.

G J C INSTRUMENTS LIMITED

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS (CONTINUED)

5. Exemptions

In preparing the above report, the directors have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies, provided by Part II of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985.

AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF

G J C INSTRUMENTS LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements on pages 4 to 6 which have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out on page 6.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND AUDITORS

As described on page 1, the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on those financial statements and to report our opinion to you.

BASIS OF OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

OPINION

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 30 September 2001 and of the result for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 1985.
