DIRECTOR'S REPORT FOR THE PERIOD TO 31ST MARCH 2002

The director presents his report together with the financial statements for the period 14th February 2001 to 31st March 2002.

Results and Dividends

The Results are considered satisfactory.

The payment of a dividend has not been recommended.

Principle Activity and Review of Business

The principle activity of the business has been the supply of maintenance services, principally for the owners of rented property in the London area.

The results are considered satisfactory for the year and the state of affairs of the company at the balance sheet date.

Directors and Their Interests

The director who served throughout the period is listed on page 1

The director has the following interests that require to be disclosed under section 7(2) of the Companies Act 1985.

The director has a beneficial interest in 90% (9 shares) of the issued share capital of the Company.

Directors Responsibilities for the Financial Statements

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs and of the profit or loss for that year. In preparing those financial statements the directors are required to:

Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.

Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent

Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the company and to enable them to comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

N J Foley
Managing Director.
