The Campaign Company Limited

Report of the Directors

The directors present their report and the financial statements of the company for the year ended 31st December 2005.

Principal activity

The principal activity of the company is to work in partnership with private business, public sector bodies and voluntary organisations to enhance their ability to provide the services and products that carry the support of the community.

Directors

The directors who served during the period and their interests in the company's issued share capital were as follows:

	Ordinary shares of £1 each
	31.12.05	31.12.04
David Evans	3,499	3,499
Jonathan Upton	3,499	3,499

Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for the period. In preparing the financial statements the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Small company provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

Audit

The directors believe that the company was entitled to exemption from audit under section 249 A (1) of the Companies Act 1985 and therefore auditors have not been appointed. However, the directors have instructed John Rogers to compile the financial statements and to report to them thereon.

Chartered Accountant's Report to the directors of The Campaign Company Limited on the unaudited financial statements for the year ended 31st December 2005

In accordance with the engagement letter dated 20th October 2005 and in order to assist you to fulfil your duties under the Companies Act 1985, I have compiled the attached financial statements of the company for the year ended 31st December 2004 which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, Balance Sheet and related notes from the accounting records and information and explanations you have given to me.

This report is made to you as the director of the company in accordance with the terms of my engagement. My work has been undertaken in order to enable me to compile the financial statements and to report to you that I have done so and for no other reason. To the fullest extent permitted by law I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and you for my work or for this report.

I have carried out this engagement in accordance with technical guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and I have complied with the ethical guidance laid down by the Institute relating to members undertaking the compilation of financial statements.

You have acknowledged on the Balance Sheet as at 31st December 2005 your duty to ensure that the company has kept proper accounting records and to prepare financial statements that give a true and fair view under the Companies Act 1985. You consider that the company is exempt from the statutory requirement for an audit for the year.

I have not carried out an audit and have therefore not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records or information and explanations you have given me and I do not, therefore, express an opinion on the financial statements.

For the financial year ended 31st December 2005 the company was entitled to exemption from audit under section 249A(1) Companies Act 1985 and no notice has been deposited under section 249B(2). The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Act and preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the year end and of its profit (or loss) for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226 and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985, so far as applicable to the company.

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small entities and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities effective June 2002.

Approved by the directors on 27 October 2006 and signed on their behalf by:

..... David Evans - Director

The Campaign Company Limited

Notes to the Financial Statements
For the year ended 31st December 2005

1 Accounting policies

- a The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards.
- b Individual items of fixed assets costing £500 or more are capitalised and written off over their estimated useful lives as follows:
- Computer equipment - over 2 years
 - Office equipment - over 2 years
- c Full provision is made at current rates for taxation deferred in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the balance sheet date where transactions or events that result in an obligation to pay more tax in the future or a right to pay less tax in the future have occurred at the balance sheet date. Timing differences are differences between the company's taxable profits and its results as stated in the financial statements that arise from gains and losses in tax assessments in periods different from those in which they are recognised in the financial statements.
