Manaj Places Limited

Notes to the Accounts for the Year Ended 8 May 2005

1. Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting

These accounts have been prepared under the historic cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities.

Depreciation

Depreciation has not been provided on the long leasehold as the directors are of the view that its value has not diminished.

2. Fixed Assets

Long term leasehold for 85 Highbury Station Road was acquired in March 2003 after which the flat was renovated and updated which increased the property's value to its current level. Original valuation of the property was £185,000.

Long term leasehold for 71 Highbury Station Road was acquired in February 2004 using both capital investments from the company of £5,500 as well as shareholders' loan. Current value of the property is £176,105.

3. Current Assets

Agent's commission for 71 Highbury Station Road was paid upfront for the entire year; hence the part of it relating to the next year is reflected as an asset on Company's Balance Sheet.

4. Creditors: amount falling due within one year

Short term creditors consist of tenants' deposits, interest due but not yet paid on the appropriate shareholder's loan as well as costs incurred by shareholders and not yet reimbursed.

5. Creditors: amount falling due after one year

The purchase of the leasehold and subsequent renovation of the flats as well as last year's company's running costs were financed by two shareholders' loans from two different shareholders.

Loan A is an interest free loan from Mr. J. Markland. It is repayable in instalments or in full on demand.

Loan B is a floating rate loan which currently pays 5.0% interest. This loan is from Mrs. N. Markland. Both interest due as well as capital repayments are payable in instalments or in full on demand.

6. Called-up share capital

Authorised share capital 100 ordinary shares Of 10 pence each	£10
Allotted, called up and fully paid 0 ordinary shares	£0

7. Controlling Party

There is no controlling party.
