Director's Responsibilities

Company Law requires the director to prepare financial statements, for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. In preparing these, the director is required to :

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the "going concern" basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the company and to enable her to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Acts 1985. She is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report is prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies act 1985 relating to small companies.

This report was approved by the Board on 20th July 2007 and signed on it's behalf by:

Ms J A Garwood
