4 Transactions with directors

The directors operate the business from home and reimburse themselves for expenses incurred on behalf of the business. Expenses are claimed intermittently throughout the year, and at times the directors are advanced funds on account of expenses, and at other times they are owed expenses. Expenses are charged at actual costs to fairly reflect the costs of operating the business. Costs of £4,987 were recharged for the year (£2,268 for 2010). Included within Other Creditors is a loan from the directors of £453. The loan is interest free and there is no date for repayment. The company has paid the directors who are the sole shareholders dividends totalling £48,000.
