In preparing these unaudited accounts advantage has been taken of the exemption from audit under section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to dormant companies. Members have not required the company to obtain an audit under section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period and which comply with the provisions of the Companies Act 2006. The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The immediate parent undertaking and the undertaking of the smallest group for which consolidated accounts are prepared is Interpublic Limited.

The accounts were approved by the board of directors and signed on its behalf by
