BOOMERANG SUPPORT SERVICES LIMITED
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2018

The Directors present their Strategic report on the company for the year ended 30th September 2018

Strategic report

Principal activity

The principal activity of the company during the year was the provision of funding and payroll services.

Review of the business

Trading performance

In the year ended 30th September 2018 the Company generated revenue of £20.2m (2017: £14.0m for a 9 month period) representing like for like growth of 8.6% as a result of growth in customers and increased trading activity. The Company generated a pre-tax loss of £0.4m (2017: profit of £0.1m) due to increased costs and significant investment in people, systems and equipment.

Financial Position

The Directors expect the trading entity to remain sufficiently profitable and cash generative to satisfy the covenants attached to the debt funding, as well as to meet interest payments as they fall due.

Cash flow

During the year, the Company's cash balance decreased from £435k to £37k due to investment in people, systems and equipment.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The Directors have fully considered all known risks and uncertainties which may affect the Company in the future. The primary risks are as follows:

- Regulatory risk – the Company operates within markets which are subject to extensive laws and regulations. These laws and regulations continue to change and evolve, as must the Company. The Company undertakes processes and procedures on an ongoing basis to ensure that it fully complies with the requirements of the relevant laws and regulations.
- Competition risk – the Company seeks to maintain long-term relationships with its customers and typically operates via rolling contracts. The Company has a good track record of renewing key customer contracts however, the market within which the Company operates are competitive.
- Innovation risk – the Company has been able to successfully innovate in order to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of its service delivery. In certain areas of our business, our customers continue to demand innovative solutions and therefore we must continue to innovate to maintain our position.
- Financial, operational and management information systems – the efficient operation and management of the Company depends upon the proper operation and performance of financial, operational and management information systems. Any failure in such systems may result in a loss of control and adversely impact the Company's ability to operate effectively and fulfil its contractual obligations.
- Key personnel – the Company has in place an experienced and motivated senior management team and considers that its management team has strength and depth. However, the loss of a significant number of key personnel could have an adverse impact on the Company's operations, reputation, customer relationships and future prospects.

Financial risk management

The primary financial risk facing the Company is that of credit risk. The Company's principal financial assets are cash and trade debtors, with credit risk for the Company primarily attributable to trade debtors. The Company has no significant concentration of credit risk with regard to trade debtors, as exposure is spread over a large number of customers and balances are in the most part insured against non payments.

The credit risk on cash balances is limited because the counterparties are banks with high credit ratings assigned by international credit ratings agencies.

Future developments

The Company is pursuing a strategy of consolidating its market leading position in the UK and will achieve this through further organic growth and potentially by pursuing carefully targeted acquisition opportunities. Capturing accurate and increasingly detailed data and seeking to leverage this to our clients' benefit is at the heart of the Company strategy.

The Company continues to develop its market leading systems and processes. Development includes enhancement of both existing portals and creation of new online portals as well as developing algorithms and building connectors to internal and external ecosystems. Digital platforms underpin products that are highly differentiated against competitor product offerings.

Key performance indicators

The directors continue to monitor the business internally with a number of performance indicators which are reviewed as part of the monthly board meeting. The Company produces an annual business plan and full monthly management information detailing revenues, profitability, cash flow and operational metrics including customer numbers, efficiency and lead generation to monitor performance to the plan.

Policy on the payment of creditors

It is the policy of the Company to maintain good relationships with its suppliers by making payments in accordance with agreed terms following receipt of a satisfactory invoice.

Going concern

The Directors consider that the Company has adequate resources to continue operating in the foreseeable future.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. In accordance with FRS 101, the Company has taken advantage of the exemptions from the following disclosure requirements:

There are no changes to IFRS effective in 2018 which have a material impact on the Company.

BOOMERANG SUPPORT SERVICES LIMITED

Significant estimates and judgements

In preparing its financial statements, the Company has made no significant judgements, estimates and assumptions that impact on the carrying value of certain assets and liabilities, income and expenses as well as other information reported in the notes. The Company periodically monitors the requirement for such estimates and assumptions and makes sure they incorporate all relevant information available at the date when financial statements are prepared. However, this does not prevent actual figures differing from estimates.

Impairments of property plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are reviewed annually for impairment if events or changes in circumstances, such as changes in technology, indicate that the carrying amount of an asset is not recoverable.

Impairments of intangible assets

Intangible assets are reviewed annually for impairment if events or changes in circumstances, such as changes in technology, indicate that the carrying amount of an asset is not recoverable.

Useful economic life of intangible assets

Intangible assets are reviewed annually for impairment if events or changes in circumstances, such as changes in technology, market or economic conditions indicate changes to the useful economic life of an asset.

Going concern

The directors have concluded that it is appropriate to prepare the accounts on a going concern basis as the Company has net assets at 30 September 2018, adequate cash resources and financial projections indicate that the Company will continue to trade within its existing bank facilities.

Equity

Equity instruments are contracts that give a residual interest in the net assets of the Company. Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Equity instruments are recognised at the amount of proceeds received net of costs directly attributable to the transaction. To the extent those proceeds exceed the par value of the shares issued they are credited to a share premium account.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that the company obtains the right to consideration in exchange for its performance. Revenue is measured at fair value of the consideration received, excluding discounts, rebates, Value Added Tax and other sales tax or duty. Revenue is recognised over the period of service.

Property, Plant & Equipment

Items of property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less any accumulated depreciation. Cost includes the purchase price as well as any incidental costs of acquisition.

Depreciation is calculated so as to write off the cost of an asset, less its estimated residual value, over its useful economic life as follows:

Fixtures and fittings	33% straight line
Computer equipment	33% straight line

Useful lives, residual values and depreciation methods are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation. Cost includes the purchase price as well as any incidental costs of acquisition.

Amortisation is calculated so as to write off the cost of the asset, less its estimated residual value, over its useful economic life as follows:

Software	33% straight line

BOOMERANG SUPPORT SERVICES LIMITED

Operating lease agreements

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Pension costs

The company operates a defined contribution pension scheme and the pension charge represents the amounts payable by the company to the fund in respect of the year.

Financial Instruments - Initial recognition and measurement

The company recognise a financial asset or a financial liability in the statement of financial position when, and only when, it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. On initial recognition, the Company recognises all financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value. The fair value of a financial asset / liability on initial recognition is normally represented by the transaction price. The transaction price for financial assets / liabilities other than those classified at fair value through profit or loss includes the transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition / issue of the financial instrument. Transaction costs incurred on acquisition of a financial asset and issue of a financial liability classified at fair value through profit or loss are expensed immediately.

The company recognises financial assets using settlement date accounting, thus an asset is recognised on the day it is received by the company and derecognised on the day that it is delivered by the company.

Subsequent measurement of financial assets

Subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification on initial recognition. The company classifies financial assets as follows:

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Assets that the company intends to sell immediately or in the near term cannot be classified in this category. These assets are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method (except for short-term receivables where interest is immaterial) minus any reduction for impairment or uncollectibility.

Typically trade and other receivables, bank balances and cash are classified in this category.

Impairment of financial assets

At the end of each reporting period, the company assesses whether its financial assets are impaired, based on objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition, the estimated future cash flows of the (group of) financial asset(s) have been affected. Objective evidence of impairment could include significant financial difficulty of the counterparty, breach of contract, probability that the borrower will enter bankruptcy, disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties, etc.

In addition, for trade receivables that are assessed not to be impaired individually, the company assesses them collectively for impairment, based on the company's past experience of collecting payments, an increase in the delayed payments in the portfolio, observable changes in economic conditions that correlate with default on receivables, etc.

Only for trade receivables, the carrying amount is reduced through the use of an allowance account and subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the allowance account. Changes in the carrying amount of the allowance account are recognised in profit or loss.

For all other financial assets, the carrying amount is directly reduced by the impairment loss.

For financial assets measured at amortised cost, if the amount of the impairment loss decreases in a subsequent period and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed (either directly or by adjusting the allowance account for trade receivables) through profit or loss. However, the reversal must not result in a carrying amount that exceeds what the amortised cost of the financial asset would have been had the impairment not been recognised at the date the impairment is reversed.

Subsequent measurement of financial liabilities

Subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on how they have been categorised on initial recognition. The company classifies financial liabilities as follows:

Other financial liabilities

All liabilities which have not been classified as fair value through profit and loss fall into this residual category. These liabilities are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Typically, trade and other payables and borrowings are classified in this category. Items classified within trade and other payables are not usually remeasured, as the obligation is known with a high degree of certainty and settlement is short-term.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash in hand, on demand deposits and other short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

Income taxes

Tax currently payable is calculated using the tax rates in force or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Taxable profit differs from accounting profit either because some income and expenses are never taxable or deductible, or because the time pattern that they are taxable or deductible differs between tax law and their accounting treatment.

Using the statement of financial position liability method, deferred tax is recognised in respect of all temporary differences between the carrying value of assets and liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position and the corresponding tax base, with the exception of goodwill not deductible for tax purposes and temporary differences arising on initial recognition of assets and liabilities that do not affect taxable or accounting profit.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that the company considers that it is probable (i.e. more likely than not) that there will be sufficient taxable profits available for the asset to be utilised within the same tax jurisdiction.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities, they relate to the same tax authority and the company's intention is to settle the amounts on a net basis.

The tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in profit or loss, except if it arises from transactions or events that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively. Where tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, it is included in the accounting for the business combination.
