C. Holcroft	50
Mrs C. Daley	-

4. Directors' Responsibilities for the Financial Statements

Company law requires the directors to prepare Financial Statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those Financial Statements, the directors are required to:

- a) select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- b) make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- c) prepare the Financial Statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, for safeguarding the assets of the company and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

C S VENDING SERVICES LIMITED

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

5. Fixed Assets

The principal movements in fixed assets are detailed in Note 6 to the Financial Statements.

6. Tax Status

The directors are of the opinion that the company is a close company within the provisions of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD

DIRECTOR

ACCOUNTANTS REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF C S VENDING SERVICES LIMITED

We have examined without carrying out an audit, the financial statements for the year ended 31 January 2015 set out on pages 4 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountant

As described on page two the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the Financial Statements, and they believe that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to examine the Financial Statements and, based on our examination, to report our opinion, as set out below, to the members.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for reporting accountants issued by the Auditing Practices Board. This examination consisted of comparing the Financial statements with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company, as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report.

The examination was not an audit conducted in accordance with Auditing standards. Accordingly we do not express an audit opinion on the Financial Statements. Therefore our examination does not provide any assurance that the accounting records and the Financial Statements are free from material misstatement.

In our opinion:

- a) the financial statements are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under the companies Act 2006 and
- b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:
 - (i) the Financial Statements have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in the Companies Act 2006.
 - (ii) the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the Financial Statements for the year specified in section 477(2) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in the Companies Act 2006.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Financial Statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The principal accounting policies of the company are set out below:

a) Turnover

Turnover is the total amount receivable by the company in the ordinary course of business with outside customers, for goods supplied as a principal, and for services provided, excluding VAT.

b) Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated on the reducing balance method and aims to write down the cost of all tangible fixed assets over their expected useful lives.

The rates generally applicable are:

Equipment: 25% p.a.

c) Deferred Taxation

Deferred taxation is the taxation attributable to timing differences between profits computed for taxation purposes and profits as stated in the Financial Statements and where appropriate is provided for in full.

Transfers to and from deferred taxation are calculated at the rate of Corporation Tax in force at the end of the year in which the transfers are made, adjusting for any changes in rate as compared with the preceding period.
