Significant accounting policies

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with FRS 102, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (as applied to small entities by Section 1A of the standard)

Going concern basis

The director has considered the effects of the COVID 19 pandemic and the subsequent relaxation of COVID regulations, and they have the opinion that this has had negligible impact on the financial position of the company. The continuation of the company relies on the financial support given by the director who has confirmed that this will continue such that they consider that there are adequate resources in place to manage its business risks. Therefore, they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting when preparing the financial statements.

Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets, which consists of freehold land only, is measured at cost or valuation less depreciation and any provision for impairment. Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost or valuation of fixed assets, less their estimated residual value, over their expected useful lives.

- Fixed assets currently comprise of freehold land which is measured at cost or valuation and not depreciated.

Financial instruments

The company has elected to apply the provisions of Section 11 Basic Financial Instruments and Section 12 Other Financial Instruments Issues of FRS 102 to all of its financial instruments.

Financial instruments are recognised in the company's balance sheet when the company becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Basic financial instruments included within these financial statements are valued at the transaction price applicable at the time of the transaction.

Financial assets and liabilities are offset, with the net amounts presented in the financial statements, when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.
