The company is entitled to exemption from audit under Section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 for the period ended 30 December 2020.

The members have not required the company to obtain an audit of its financial statements for the period ended 30 December 2020 in accordance with Section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for:

- (a) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with Sections 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006 and
- (b) preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of each financial year and of its profit or loss for each financial year in accordance with the requirements of Sections 394 and 395 and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the company.

The financial statements have been prepared and delivered in accordance with the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

In accordance with Section 444 of the Companies Act 2006, the Income Statement has not been delivered.

The financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors and authorised for issue on 23 September 2021 and were signed on its behalf by:

Mr S Charalampous - Director

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE PERIOD 1 JANUARY 2020 TO 30 DECEMBER 2020

1. STATUTORY INFORMATION

Filio Holdings UK Limited is a private company, limited by shares, registered in England and Wales. The company's registered number and registered office address can be found on the Company Information page.

The presentation currency of the financial statements is the Euro (€). The functional currency of the entity is US Dollar ($).

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" including the provisions of Section 1A "Small Entities" and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The Covid-19 pandemic has not significantly affected the company after the balance sheet date, and management has determined that there is no material uncertainty that casts doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern.

These accounts present information about the company as a single undertaking and the group accounts are prepared separately by the ultimate parent company in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union (EU) which can be obtained at the registered office address of the company.

The ultimate parent company has provided parental guarantee to the Company in accordance with Section 479C of the Companies Act 2006.

Turnover

Turnover is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, excluding discounts, rebates, value added tax and other sales taxes.

Investments in subsidiaries

Investments in subsidiary undertakings are recognised at cost.

Financial instruments

Trade receivables and debt securities are initially recognised when they are originated.

A financial asset or financial liability is initially measured at fair value plus, transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue. A trade receivable without a significant financing component is initially measured at the transaction price.

On initial recognition the entity classifies a financial asset at amortised cost. These assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The amortised cost is reduced by impairment losses. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in profit or loss.

On initial recognition, the entity classifies a financial liability at amortised cost. Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in profit or loss.

Taxation

Taxation for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the Income Statement, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current or deferred taxation assets and liabilities are not discounted.

Current tax is recognised at the amount of tax payable using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the statement of financial position date.
