BUSINESS REVIEW

Emergence of COVID-19

The coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic has, and will likely continue to, severely impact global economic conditions, resulting in substantial volatility in the global financial markets and operational challenges. The extent of the impact is highly uncertain and cannot be predicted and could adversely affect the future operations and financial condition of Morgan Stanley and the Company.

Overview of 2019 performance and key performance indicators

The Company's main key performance indicators are loss after tax, total assets and total liabilities.

The Company reported a loss after tax for the year of €1,712,000, compared to €1,884,000 in the prior year. The Company's loss after tax comprised net interest expense on amounts payable to other Morgan Stanley Group undertakings. The decrease in losses is attributable to an decrease in average EUR interest rates.

The Company's total assets at 31 December 2019 were €144,884,000, compared to €144,790,000 at 31 December 2018. The increase of €94,000 is attributable to an increase in amounts receivable from other Morgan Stanley Group undertakings. The Company's total liabilities at 31 December 2019 were €189,460,000 compared to €187,654,000 at 31 December 2018. The increase of €1,806,000 is primarily attributable to an increase in amounts due to other Morgan Stanley Group undertakings.

RISK MANAGEMENT

As an intermediate holding company, the Company is exposed to the risk of decline in value of its investments in subsidiary undertakings. Due to the current financial strength of its subsidiary undertakings, the Directors consider that the actual risk the Company is exposed to is minimal.

The Directors consider that the Company's key financial risks are credit risk, primarily its concentration of exposure to other Morgan Stanley Group undertakings and liquidity risk arising primarily through its exposure to other Morgan Stanley Group undertakings presented within other receivables and payables and debt and other borrowings. The Company leverages the Morgan Stanley Group's credit and liquidity risk frameworks to identify, measure, monitor and control credit risk and to ensure that the Company has access to adequate funding.

The Company also has some limited exposure to country, operational and legal, regulatory and compliance risks.

The Company leverages the risk management policies and procedures of the Morgan Stanley Group. The Company also manages the risk of potential impacts on its business (including but not limited to the impact of the UK's decision to leave the European Union (the "EU")) by maintaining a constant planning dialogue with the wider Morgan Stanley Group.

GOING CONCERN

Business risks associated with the uncertain market and economic conditions are being actively monitored and managed by the Morgan Stanley Group and the Company. Retaining sufficient capital and liquidity to withstand these market pressures remains central to the Morgan Stanley Group and the Company's strategy. The existing and potential effects of COVID-19 on the business of the Morgan Stanley Group and the Company have been considered as part of the going concern analysis, including impact on operational capacity, access to liquidity and capital and contractual obligations. The Company has access to further Morgan Stanley Group capital and liquidity as required.

Although the Company has net liabilities, the Company is performing in line with expectations. The net liabilities payable are due to amounts owing to fellow Morgan Stanley Group undertakings, the demand for repayment of which is wholly within the control of the Morgan Stanley Group.

Taking all of these factors into consideration, the Directors believe it is reasonable to assume that the Company will have access to adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Accordingly, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the annual reports and financial statements.

Critical accounting judgements and sources of estimation uncertainty

No critical judgements have been made in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies that have had a significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements. The Company has not made any key assumptions and there are no other key sources of estimation uncertainty in the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the next financial year.

The going concern assumption

The Company's business activities, together with the factors likely to affect its future development, performance and position, are reflected in the Business Review section of the Strategic report on page 1.

As set out in the Strategic report, retaining sufficient liquidity and capital to withstand market pressures remain central to the Morgan Stanley Group's and the Company's strategy.

Taking the above factors into consideration, the Directors believe it is reasonable to assume that the Company will have access to adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Accordingly, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the annual report and financial statements.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. Functional currency

Items included in the financial statements are measured and presented in Euros, the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates.

b. Foreign currencies

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than Euros are translated into Euros at the rates ruling at the reporting date. Transactions and non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than Euros are recorded at the rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. All translation differences are recognised through the statement of comprehensive income.

c. Financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities primarily comprise investments in subsidiaries, debt and other borrowings and other receivables and payables.

Investments in subsidiaries are stated at cost, less provision for any impairment. Dividends, impairment losses and reversals of impairment losses are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income in 'Net gains/(losses) on investments in subsidiaries'.

Other receivables and payables and debt and other borrowings are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and are initially measured at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost (less allowance for impairment on financial assets). Interest is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income using the effective interest rate ("EIR") method.

c. Financial instruments (continued)

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. The Company derecognises financial liabilities when the Company's obligations are discharged, cancelled or they expire.

d. Impairment of financial assets

The Company recognises loss allowances for expected credit losses ("ECL") for its financial assets classified at amortised cost. ECL are the present value of cash shortfalls over the expected life of the financial instrument, discounted at the asset's EIR. ECL are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income within 'Net impairment loss on financial instruments' and is reflected against the carrying amount of the impaired asset on the statement of financial position as an ECL allowance. Where there has been a reduction in ECL, this will be recognised within 'Net reversal of impairment loss on financial instruments'.

Impairment losses on investment in subsidiaries are measured as the difference between cost and the current estimated recoverable amount. When the recoverable amount is less than the cost, an impairment is recognised within the statement of comprehensive income in 'Net losses on investments in subsidiaries,' and is reflected against the carrying amount of the impaired asset on the statement of financial position.

e. Income tax

The tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and is calculated based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit may differ from profit before taxation as reported in the statement of comprehensive income because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Company's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

MORGAN STANLEY HIMALIA CAYMAN LIMITEDNOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*Year ended 31 December 2019*4. INTEREST INCOME AND INTEREST EXPENSE

'Interest income' and 'Interest expense' represent total interest income and total interest expense for financial assets and financial liabilities that are not carried at fair value.

The Company's Directors are employed by other Morgan Stanley Group companies. The Directors' services to the Company are considered to be incidental to their other responsibilities within the Morgan Stanley Group and as such, Directors' remuneration is €nil for the current year (2018: €nil).
