Circadia Ventures LLP (Registered number: OC317841)

Report of the Members
for the Year Ended 31 March 2010

The members present their report with the financial statements of the LLP for the year ended 31 March 2010

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITY

The principal activity of the LLP in the year under review was that of a venture capital fund manager. The LLP has entered into an agreement with its subsidiary which is a general partner of a limited partnership 'Tate & Lyle Ventures LP' whereby the subsidiary company remits the management fees received from the fund to the LLP in consideration for services as manager of the fund. The fund has been established for the purposes of investing in early stage businesses to deliver the next generation of food and industrial ingredients.

DESIGNATED MEMBERS

The designated members during the year under review were

S A Barnes
D J Atkinson

RESULTS FOR THE YEAR AND ALLOCATION TO MEMBERS

The profit for the year before members' remuneration and profit shares was £558,718 (2009 - £546,989 profit)

MEMBERS' INTERESTS

Members are required to subscribe a minimum level of capital, the amounts of which are determined by the LLP agreement. Members cannot transfer or pledge their interest in the LLP without prior consent of members holding not less than 75% of the LLP's capital interests. Any capital contribution made by any of the members of the LLP shall only be repayable with the unanimous agreement of all the designated members. On cessation of membership, the LLP will pay an amount equal to the net amount standing to the credit of the members account.

Each member is entitled to guaranteed drawings as determined by the LLP agreement provided that there is sufficient cash available to the LLP.

No profits or distributions shall be made from the LLP to its members if the LLP does not have sufficient regulatory capital required to be maintained by the LLP to comply with FSA regulations.

STATEMENT OF MEMBERS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The members are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Legislation applicable to limited liability partnerships requires the members to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the members have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the LLP and of the profit or loss of the LLP for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the members are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the LLP will continue in business.

The members are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the LLP and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 as modified by the Limited Liability Partnerships (Accounts and Audit) (Application of Companies Act 2006) Regulations 2008. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the LLP and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

STATEMENT AS TO DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO AUDITORS

So far as the members are aware, there is no relevant audit information (as defined by Section 418 of the Companies Act 2006) of which the LLP's auditors are unaware, and each member has taken all the steps that he ought to have taken as a member in order to make himself aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the LLP's auditors are aware of that information.

AUDITORS

The auditors, S H Landes LLP, will be proposed for re-appointment at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Members of Circadia Ventures LLP

We have audited the financial statements of Circadia Ventures LLP for the year ended 31 March 2010 on pages six to twelve. These financial statements have been prepared under the accounting policies set out therein and the requirements of the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008).

This report is made solely to the LLP's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 as modified by the Limited Liability Partnerships (Accounts and Audit) (Application of Companies Act 2006) Regulations 2008. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the LLP's members those matters we are required to state to them in a Report of the Auditors and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the LLP and the LLP's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of members and auditors

The members' responsibilities for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) and for being satisfied that the financial statements give a true and fair view are set out on page two.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland).

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice applicable to Smaller Entities, have been prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 as modified by the Limited Liability Partnerships (Accounts and Audit) (Application of Companies Act 2006) Regulations 2008. We also report to you whether in our opinion the information given in the Report of the Members is consistent with the financial statements.

In addition, we report to you if, in our opinion, the LLP has not kept adequate accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if certain disclosures of members' remuneration specified by law are not made.

We read the Report of the Members and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements within it.

Basis of audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the members in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the LLP's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Members of Circadia Ventures LLP

Opinion

In our opinion

- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice applicable to Smaller Entities,
- the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 as modified by the Limited Liability Partnerships (Accounts and Audit) (Application of Companies Act 2006) Regulations 2008, and
- the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the LLP's affairs as at 31 March 2010 and of its profit for the year then ended, and
- the information given in the Report of the Members is consistent with the financial statements

1 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008) and the requirements of the Statement of Recommended Practice, Accounting by Limited Liability Partnerships

Preparation of consolidated financial statements

The financial statements contain information about Circadia Ventures LLP as an individual LLP and do not contain consolidated financial information as the parent of a group. The LLP has taken the option under Section 398 of the Companies Act 2006 as modified by the Limited Liability Partnerships (Accounts and Audit) (Application of Companies Act 2006) Regulations 2008 not to prepare consolidated financial statements

Turnover

Turnover comprises management fee received from a subsidiary undertaking in consideration for management of a venture capital fund

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life

Fixtures and fittings - 20% on reducing balance

Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the date of transaction. Exchange differences are taken into account in arriving at the operating result

Allocation of profits and losses

A members' share in the profit for the year is accounted for as an allocation of profits. Losses of the LLP are allocated to the LLP Profit and Loss deficit account and to the extent there are outstanding losses, profits will be allocated to the LLP Profit and Loss deficit account. Any remaining profits are then allocated to the members entitled to guaranteed drawings, and as between them pro rata to their guaranteed drawings including the guaranteed drawings outstanding from previous financial years. The remaining profits are then allocated between the members in accordance with their profit sharing percentages as set out in the LLP agreement

Taxation

Taxation on partnership profits is solely the personal responsibility of individual members. Consequently neither taxation nor related deferred taxation arising in respect of the LLP are accounted for in these financial statements
