The directors:

- confirm that for the year ending August 31, 2004 the company was entitled to the exemption under subsection (1) of section 249A;
- confirm that no notice requiring an audit had been deposited under subsection (2) of section 249B in relation to the accounts for the financial year; and
- acknowledge their responsibility for;
 - ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 ; and
 - preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

The directors have taken advantage in the preparation of these financial statements of special exemptions provided by Part 3 of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985 on the basis that the company qualifies as a small company.

In the preparation of the company's annual accounts, the directors have taken advantage of the exemptions conferred by Part 1 of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985, and have done so on the grounds that, in their opinion, the company is entitled to the benefit of those exemptions as a small company.

The financial statements on pages 1 to 2 were approved by the board of directors on May 16, 2005.

Director W. Forrester

NOTES TO THE MODIFIED ACCOUNTS AT AUGUST 31, 2004.1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards.

Depreciation is provided to write off the cost of tangible fixed assets by equal installments over their useful economic lives as follows:

Plant and Machinery – 4 to 7 years.

Turnover, all of which arose in the UK, represents the invoiced value, excluding value added tax, of services supplied by the company.

Deferred taxation is provided on the liability method in respect of the taxation affect of all timing differences to the extent that tax liabilities are likely to crystallise in the foreseeable future.
