Wood Group Production Technology Limited

Registered Number: SC 106951

Directors' report for the year ended 31 December 2011

The directors present their report and the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2011.

Business review and principal activities

The company did not trade during the year. As a result no profit and loss account is presented in these financial statements.

Future outlook

The directors do not anticipate the company trading in future.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The principal risks and uncertainties impacting on the company are discussed in the context of John Wood Group PLC "the Group", as a whole in the Group's annual report and accounts. These risks are managed on a Group basis.

Key performance indicators ("KPI's")

The directors of John Wood Group PLC manage the Group's operations on a divisional basis. For this reason the company's directors are of the opinion that analysis using KPIs is not necessary for an understanding of the development or position of the business. The development and position of John Wood Group PLC, which includes the company, is discussed in the Group's Annual Report and Accounts.

Results, dividends and transfers to reserves

The profit for the financial year amounted to £nil (2010: £nil). The directors do not recommend payment of a dividend. As the company recorded neither a profit nor a loss for the year there has been no transfer to or from reserves.

Directors

The directors who served the company during the year and up to the date of signing the financial statements are listed below:

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law, the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

Directors' report for the year ended 31 December 2011 (continued)

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

So far as each director is aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the company's auditors are unaware. Relevant information is defined as "information needed by the company's auditors in connection with preparing their report".

Each director has taken all the steps that he ought to have taken in his duty as a director in order to make himself aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditors are aware of that information.

Auditors
The auditors, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP have indicated their willingness to continue in office and a resolution concerning their re-appointment will be proposed.

By order of the Board

Independent auditors' report to the members of Wood Group Production Technology Limited

We have audited the financial statements of Wood Group Production Technology Limited for the year ended 31 December 2011 which comprise the Balance Sheet and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement set out on page 1 the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

This report, including the opinions, has been prepared for and only for the company's members as a body in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 and for no other purpose. We do not, in giving these opinions, accept or assume responsibility for any other purpose or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come save where expressly agreed by our prior consent in writing.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the directors; and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and related notes to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 December 2011 and of its result for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Directors' Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Notes to the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2011

1 Principal accounting policies

Basis of preparation

These financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention and in accordance the Companies Act 2006 and with applicable Accounting Standards in the United Kingdom. A summary of the accounting policies, which have been applied consistently, is set out below.

Cash flows

The company is a wholly owned subsidiary of John Wood Group PLC and the cash flows of the company are included in the consolidated group cash flow statement of John Wood Group PLC. Consequently the company is exempt under the terms of FRS 1 (Revised 1996) "Cash Flow Statements" from publishing a cash flow statement.

Foreign currencies

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate ruling at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the date ruling at the balance sheet date, and differences on exchange arising thereon are dealt with through operating profit.

Taxation

The current tax charge is based on the taxable profit for the year. Taxable profits differ from the profit reported in the profit & loss account due to timing differences and other items that require adjustment as set out in legislation. The company's liability for tax is calculated using rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

2 Directors' emoluments

No remuneration has been paid to or waived by the directors during the year in respect of the services they provided to the company.

3 Audit fees

The company's audit fee was borne by another group company.

8 Related party transactions

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in FRS 8 "Related Party Disclosures" not to disclose any transactions with entities that are part of the group which qualify as related parties, on the grounds that it is a subsidiary where 100% or more of the voting rights are controlled within the group, and the consolidated financial statements of John Wood Group PLC, its ultimate parent company, are publicly available (note 9).

9 Ultimate parent company

Wood Group Production Technology Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of WLS Holdings Limited. The directors regard John Wood Group PLC, a company registered in Scotland, as the ultimate parent company and controlling party at 31 December 2011.

John Wood Group PLC is the only undertaking for which consolidated financial statements, which include the financial statements of Wood Group Production Technology Limited, are prepared. Copies of John Wood Group PLC financial statements can be obtained from The Company Secretary, John Wood House, Greenwell Road, Aberdeen, AB12 3AX, Scotland.
