We have examined the abbreviated financial statements on pages 2 to 5 together with the financial statements of Fastek Electronics Limited prepared under section 226 of the Companies Act 1985 for the year ended 31 March 2000. The scope of our work for the purpose of this report was limited to confirming that the company is entitled to the exemptions claimed on pages 2 and 3 and that the abbreviated financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with that schedule.

On 31 January 2001, we reported, as accountants of Fastek Electronics Limited, to the shareholders on the financial statements prepared under section 226 of the Companies Act 1985 for the year ended 31 March 1999, and our report was as follows:

Respective responsibilities of the directors and the reporting accountants

As described on pages 5 to 6 the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis of opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the financial statements with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- (a) the financial statements are in agreement with those accounting records kept by the company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985;
- (b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:
 - (i) the financial statements have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in section 249C(6) of the Act; and
 - (ii) the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the financial statements for the year specified in section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in section 249B(1)(a) to (f).
