Directors' Responsibilities
Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

1. Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently
2. Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
3. Follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures, disclosed and explained in the accounts
4. Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Audit Exemption
The directors have taken advantage of the exemptions conferred by Section 249A(1) of the Companies Act 1985 not to have these financial statements audited and confirm that no notice has been deposited under section 249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985.

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for ensuring that:

1. The company keeps accounting records, which comply with section 221 of the Companies Act 1985.
2. The financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the balance sheet date and of its Profit and Loss Account for the year then ended in accordance with the requirements of Section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to the Financial Statements so far as applicable to the company.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

Signed on behalf of the Board of Directors:

Alastair Matthew Cunningham

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

We report on the accounts for the period ended 31 December 2008, set out on pages 4 to 6.

Respective Responsibilities of Directors and Reporting Accountants
As described on page 2, the company's director is responsible for the preparation of the accounts and he considers that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

In order to assist to fulfil the statutory responsibilities, we have been instructed to compile the annual accounts based on the accounting records maintained by the company and the information and explanations supplied to us.

Basis of Engagement
We have a professional duty to compile accounts, which conform with generally accepted accounting principles. We planned our work on the basis that no report is required buy statute or regulation for the year. Our work as the compilers of the annual accounts is not an audit of the accounts in accordance with auditing standards.

We report that, in accordance with the company's instructions and in order to assist to fulfil the responsibilities, we have compiled, without carrying out an audit, the accounts from the accounting records of the company and from the information and explanations supplied to us.

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

1. Accounting Principles and Policies

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (FRSSE) (effective June 2000). In accordance with FRSSE paragraph 2.5 the following accounting policies are noted:

Foreign Currencies
Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the date of transaction. Exchange differences are, in principle, taken into the Profit and Loss Account, however in this case, the small gain in the re-translation of the opening balance has not been dealt with, as it is neither material nor prudent to do so, except as a movement on reserves. This statement is required by Schedules 8A/9 and 8/51(1) (CA 1985).

Turnover Overseas
In accordance with Schedule 8/49 of the Companies' Act 1985 we state that the entire turnover was attributable to markets outside the UK.
