Trustees Report for the year ended 31st May 2011

Trustees Report

The Trustees submit their Report and Financial Statements for the year ended May 31st, 2011 for the charity's activities across the former baronial lands.

The Trust continued its active support for research and community education throughout the year - most especially in respect of the Battle of Prestonpans [1745] Tapestry. Prestoungrange Arts Festival [2006] was also once again strongly supported with the creation of additional murals, the annual murals fest in Cuthill Park, the Belfield Arts Workshops and the murals' maintenance programme after especially bad weather along the baronial foreshore.

2012/ 2013 will be the final years of grant support to the Prestoungrange Arts Festival [2006] per se and it is pleasing to note that the Festival is meeting with considerable success in sustaining and advancing its work across the community with volunteers and alternative grants-in-aid.

The Trust is responsible inter alia for the receipt and allocation of Gothenburg Principles funds arising in Prestonpans. Whilst to date allocations have traditionally been made 'in kind' through use of premises and similar benefits, from 2012 a Committee working on behalf of the Trustees will be formed and Dr Andrew Crummy, a Friend of the Charity since its establishment, has been invited to act as Chairman thereof.

Finally, all the many volunteers who support the charity in achieving its objectives in the community are to be thanked, most especially Dr. Andrew Crummy, Gillian Hart and Arran Johnston, and the Trustees gladly do so.

Results

The surplus of income against expenditure for the year amounted to £5,100 (2010 deficit - £43,601).

Close Company

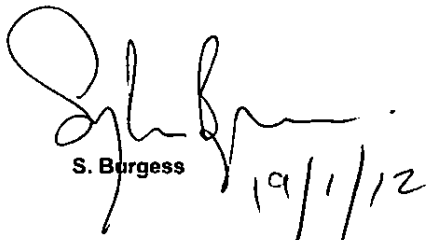

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions relating to small companies within Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

Report by the Independent Examiner

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of Baron Courts of Prestoungrange & Dolphinstoun Limited
Accounts for the year to 31st May 2011

Scottish Charity SC033139

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

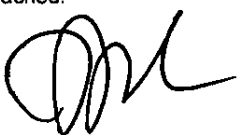

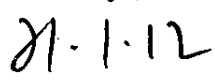

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
