ACTIVITIES

The company did not trade during the period

REVIEW OF THE BUSINESS AND FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

The company did not trade during the period and is not expected to in the future

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial period and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

DIRECTORS AND THEIR INTERESTS

The directors of the company during the period were those listed on page 1. None of the directors had any beneficial interest in the ordinary shares of the company at 30 June 2006.

R M Swire, B N Swire and N O Chalmers are also directors of Clyde Marine plc and their interests in the share capital of that company are shown in that company's accounts.
