ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS ON THE UNAUDITED ACCOUNTS OF ASHSTEF LTD.

We report on the accounts for the year ended 31 October 2010 set out on page 3 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As described on the balance sheet on page 4 the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis of opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the company's accounting records and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Limited opinion

In our opinion:

- a the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under Section 476 of the Companies Act 2006;
- b having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:
 - i the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting records;
 - ii the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year as specified in Section 477 of the Act and did not, at any time within the year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in Section 477.

NOTES ON THE ACCOUNTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 OCTOBER 2010

1 STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which gives a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- a select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- b make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- c state whether or not applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts: and;
- d prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and which enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

2 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

- a Basis of accounts preparation.

The accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention and are in accordance with applicable accounting standards.
