The notes form part of these abbreviated accounts

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements
The director has a reasonable expectation that the company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus she continues to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the annual financial statements.

Accounting convention
The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008).

Turnover
Turnover and profit on ordinary activities before taxation are attributable to telecommunications and I.T. services.

Contracts for services
Where the substance of a contract is that the contractual obligations are performed gradually over time, revenue is recognised as contract activity progresses to reflect the partial performance of our contractual obligations. The amount of revenue included reflects of the accrual of the right to consideration as contract activity progresses by reference to value of the work performed.
