REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS
For the year ended 31 March 2013

The directors present their annual report, together with the unaudited financial statements of the company for the year ended 31 March 2013.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITY AND BUSINESS REVIEW

The company is dormant and has not traded since its incorporation and accordingly no profit and loss account is presented. Similarly, no key performance indicators or other performance measures are presented.

The directors do not intend to trade the company in the foreseeable future and therefore no statements on any of strategy, future outlook and principal risks and uncertainties are presented.

DIVIDEND

The directors do not recommend the payment of a dividend.

DIRECTORS

The directors who held office during the year were:

M A Payton
T R A Hazell

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are responsible for preparing the directors' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice. Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and, where applicable, of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

DIRECTORS' REPORT (CONTINUED)

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES (CONTINUED)

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

AUDITORS

The company is entitled to exemption from audit under section 480 Companies Act 2006. The members of the company have not required the company under the provisions of section 476 Companies Act 2006 to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year. Accordingly, auditors have not been appointed and the financial statements have not been audited.
