BREAST CANCER CAMPAIGN SCOTLAND

TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2012

The trustees have pleasure in presenting their report and financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2012.

Structure, Governance and Management

Status

The charity is a company incorporated on 21 October 2008, limited by guarantee and registered in Scotland. Charitable activities commenced with effect from 21 October 2008.

Charitable objects and policies

Breast Cancer Campaign Scotland was founded in 2008 and constituted as a registered charity and registered with the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator under charity number SC039974. Breast Cancer Campaign Scotland's mission is to beat breast cancer by funding innovative world-class research to understand how breast cancer develops, leading to improved diagnosis, treatment, prevention and cure. The charity funds research at any centre of excellence in Scotland.

Trustees and Governance

The trustees meet formally four times during the calendar year. The trustees who served during the year were

Mr Christopher Finch
Ms Isla Smith

Consistent with the charity's governance requirements trustees retire after a maximum of six years' service. Trustees are recruited through various routes, including via a recruitment consultant and prior involvement with the charity's activities. New trustees go through a formal induction programme at the charity's office in London.

Organisational Structure and Staffing

Day to day management of the charity is delegated to the Chief Executive and Senior Management Team of Breast Cancer Campaign.

Scientific Advisory Board (SAB)

The SAB is responsible for making recommendations to the trustees as to which research projects should be funded. Its members are required to be actively involved in breast cancer research and are drawn from various disciplines; all serve on advisory boards of one or more of the Medical Research Council, Cancer Research UK and other major cancer funding organisations. All research is independently reviewed by at least two and sometimes as many as six external reviewers before being presented for review to the SAB. Details of the charity's policies regarding the awarding and monitoring of grants are available from the research team and on the charity's website.

The maximum length of service on the board is four years (with the exception of a member who may go on to chair the board) so members retire and new members are appointed each year. SAB members contribute their services voluntarily and we are indebted to them as well as the many hundreds of scientists and clinicians who review our grant applications.

The need

Breast cancer is the most common form of cancer in the UK, accounting for nearly one in three of all cancers in women, with around 48,000 new cases each year. Although it is rare, men can also suffer from breast cancer; around 340 men are affected each year. The incidence of breast cancer in the UK has increased by nearly nine per cent in the last five years and 21 per cent in the last 10 years.

Campaign Scotland continues to welcome applications in all aspects of breast cancer research, including basic, translational and pre-clinical research, prevention (the impact of diet and lifestyle on risk), psychosocial sciences, epidemiology, nursing, palliative care, complementary therapies, chemotherapy, radiology, radiotherapy, bioinformatics, pharmacy and pharmacology.

Objectives

Breast Cancer Campaign Scotland's vision is to beat breast cancer. Our mission is that we will beat breast cancer by funding innovative world-class research to understand how breast cancer develops, leading to improved diagnosis, treatment, prevention and cure.

Activities and Financial Results

Breast Cancer Campaign Scotland was formed in 2008 to facilitate fundraising for the funding of grants in Scotland. However, in the first two years there were no activities in this area and dormant accounts have been filed. In the year ending June 2012 new corporate participation contracts have been achieved making fundraising possible.

Reserves Policy

Free reserves - which are those unrestricted funds not invested in fixed assets, designated for a specific purpose or otherwise committed – are required to be held by the charity to provide funding for future research grants. At 30 June 2012 these free reserves stand at £188,627, which will be made available during 2012/12 to fund new research projects.

Plans for Future Periods

Campaign Scotland will continue to fundraise throughout Scotland and to identify breast cancer research projects to fund.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Trustees (who are also directors of Breast Cancer Campaign Scotland for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company and charity law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

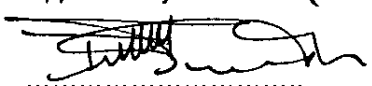

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charitable company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Auditors

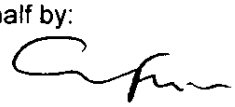

haysmacintyre has expressed its willingness to continue in office as auditors and a resolution proposing its re-appointment will be submitted at the appropriate trustee meeting.
