This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a fair and accurate description of how they have benefited the community, or section of the community, which the company is intended to serve.

The studio has provided workspace, access to equipment and technical support for professional artists/designers from different disciplines. This has benefitted the creative community by enabling creative learning and development. A wide variety of creative learning opportunities for adults (& some young people) have been delivered; courses, workshops and individual tuition. This has enabled people to learn new skills, build confidence, and in some cases apply the skills in their job (CPD). Workspace and equipment hire, with technical support has been provided for non-professionals to access ceramics thereby widening engagement with creative processes. More work experience placements were provided for art students to learn about the running of a working studio and to develop their practical and creative skills. Design/art students from Edinburgh College of Art, Edinburgh University and other colleges have been receiving specialist technical support/tuition for their practical projects. Outreach workshops were provided for Artlink users. Occasional free space was provided for board meeting of Applied Arts Scotland, an arts charity of which Fiona Thompsen is a board member.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are; how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.

Third party stakeholders include other artists, art students, colleges/universities, and clients from a wide range of locations (local, city wide and national/international) and other arts organisations.

Consultation includes discussion with clients during sessions, discussion with other professionals in the field, and encouraging feedback via social media.
An enewsletter keeps clients informed with the opportunity to feed back.

PART 3 – DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION – if you have provided full details in your accounts you need not reproduce it here. If no remuneration was received you must state that "no remuneration was received" below.
