PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a description of how they have benefited the community.

Green Aspirations Scotland CIC has worked hard to keep delivering training and support, building successfully on our history over the first 10 years of operation. We have sought direct grant funding, worked in partnerships with other organisations, provided workshops to other organisations, sold workshop places to the public and run commercial services such as birthday parties and school holiday clubs. Our main activities are captured below. We have:

- Worked with a range of organisations, including scouts and guides groups, community and volunteer groups, youth groups and others, to deliver green woodworking skills in different settings. Through these projects, we have reached 1240 people. Some of these groups include vulnerable adults and young people. This work has been delivered across Scotland, often in areas of with very high levels of deprivation, such as areas of Glasgow, West Dunbartonshire, and South Lanarkshire. This year, we have also worked further afield, including in Arbroath, Whithorn and the Scottish Borders.
- Worked with threfive high schools, including one residential school, providing an alternative learning environment and routes to positive outcomes. The majority of the 56 pupils we have worked with are particularly vulnerable and come to us with few positive outcomes.
- Invested in site infrastructure to enable us to deliver more craft events. We have also become a registered food business.
- Provided weekly support to two mental health groups in Helensburgh, one in local woodland one day per week. This project was based on the benefits of social time in woodland. The second week day is at the Enable social centre Jeans Bothy.
- Supported a weekly volunteer day, for people from our local communities to help with different woodlands-related tasks. One of our Board members also provides 1 day a week voluntary business support
- Engaged adults with nature through green woodworking workshops. Over the course of 2023 we ran 25 workshops, on our site, attracting just short of 250 participants. Participants appreciated being able to attend in an outdoor setting
- Now in its 7th year, we run The Great Scottish Spoon Hoolie again. Our largest event yet, we had 150 people over the weekend. A leased site provided the venue and we are now firmly established as a date on the UK craft calander.
- We our children's holiday club is going from strength to strength.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached")

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are; how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.

Our stakeholders are the people that take part in our projects and training, volunteers and directors.

- We actively encourage feedback from all participants in our activities. This is collected formally, through feedback forms and surveys, and informally whilst chatting round the campfire. Feedback is recorded, considered by the Board of Directors and sessional staff, and responded to appropriately.
- Directors (7) are all actively involved in the organisation and meet for Board meetings at least four times a year. Directors each have an interest in different parts of the organisation. The Board was recently refreshed as part of a strategic review process, and have worked together to set out the goals for the coming three years.
- Our recently started apprentice has now joined the board to give volunteer/ employee input.
- We also use our social media presence (now 7000+ followers on FaceBook alone) to seek feedback and comment on projects.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").
